

- Organize one or more pyramid league systems in each major metropolitan area.
- Maintain multiple playing locations in major metropolitan area or geographically linked communities.
- Provide players of all levels with regular play, close to where they live, work, or go to school.
- Meet the needs of an ever-expanding number of players.
- Require and encourage growth.
- Provide league organizers with steady and predictable revenue.
- Lay groundwork for establishing state association of clubs.

