World Cadet Challenge

MDTTC's Crystal Wang, 12, made the quarterfinals of Cadet Girls' Singles the World Cadet Challenge this past weekend. The event was held Oct. 23 - Nov. 1 in Bridgetown, Barbados. Playing against players who were often over two years older, she went 3-0 in her preliminaries (including a deuce-in-the-fifth win over Adriana Diaz of Puerto Rico, ranked #12 by the ITTF in World Cadets and the #2 ranked cadet in North & South America), and won her first match in the main draw, 4-2 over Nanapat Kola of Thailand. She lost 2-4 in the quarters to Adina Diaconu of Romania.

She also teamed with Amy Wang of New Jersey to make the quarterfinals of Cadet Girls' Doubles (losing 1-3 to Mima Ito/Jiho Kim of Japan), and was on the North American Team that made the semifinals of Cadet Girls Teams (losing 0-3 to Team Asia). Here's a feature ITTF article on Crystal. Here's the ITTF home page for the event, with results, articles, and pictures. (Besides Crystal and Amy, there are two other USA players, Kanak Jha and Jack Wang. Kanak made the semifinals of Cadet Boys' Singles and won the bronze medal match, and Jack made the quarterfinals. Kanak and Jack made the semifinals of Cadet Boys Doubles, and played on the North American Team that lost 1-3 to Team Europe in the semifinals of Cadet Boys Teams.)

TIP OF THE MONTH: Ten Steps to a Great Service Game

By Larry Hodges

I've included links to some pertinent articles.

1. Learn to serve with lots of spin by accelerating the racket through the ball and grazing it. (Here's the article Serving Short with Spin. Here's another, Five Steps to a Great Spin Serve.)
2. Learn to serve various spins, including backspin, side-backspin, sidespin, side-topspin, and topspin, and be able to serve with sidespin in either direction. (Here's the article Importance of Serve Variety.)
3. Learn to serve low. (Here's the article Serving Low.)
4. Learn to control the depth and direction of the serve. (Here's the article Depth Control of Serves.)
5. Learn to serve with spin using a semi-circular motion so you can create different spins with the same motion by varying where in the motion you contact the ball. (Here's the article Semi-Circular Motion on Serves.)
6. Learn to minimize and do quickly this semi-circular motion so receiver has trouble picking up contact. (See same article linked in #5.)
7. Learn to change the direction of your follow-through with your racket the split second after contact to mislead the receiver. (Here's the article Exaggerate the Opposite Motion on Serves.)
8. Learn to fake spin and serve no-spin by contacting the ball near the handle. (Here's the article Those Dizzying No-Spin Serves.)
9. Learn to serve fast & deep as a variation to your spin serves. (Here's the article Fifteen Important Deep Serves. Here's another, Turn Opponents into Puppets with Long Serves. Here's How to Ace an Opponent.)
10. Learn to follow up your serves. (Here's the article The Purpose of the Serve.)
